Joint Director's message

Bankers Institute of Rural Development (BIRD), Kolkata as a training arm of National Bank for Agriculture and Rural Development (NABARD) has been striving to enrich knowledge and skill sets of various stakeholders working for agriculture and rural development. Spread over three and half decades BIRD ventured out to the trainees from Bolpur, Shantiniketan, West Bengal till 2019-20, now relocated to Kolkata and catering to the training and capacity building of Eastern and North Eastern states like Bihar, Jharkhand, Odisha, West Bengal and the whole of North Eastern States including Sikkim and A&N islands. The bouquet of programmes handled by BIRD, Kolkata, have also been evolved over the years which include subjects, issues being posed by changing paradigm of rural developmental credit eco system.

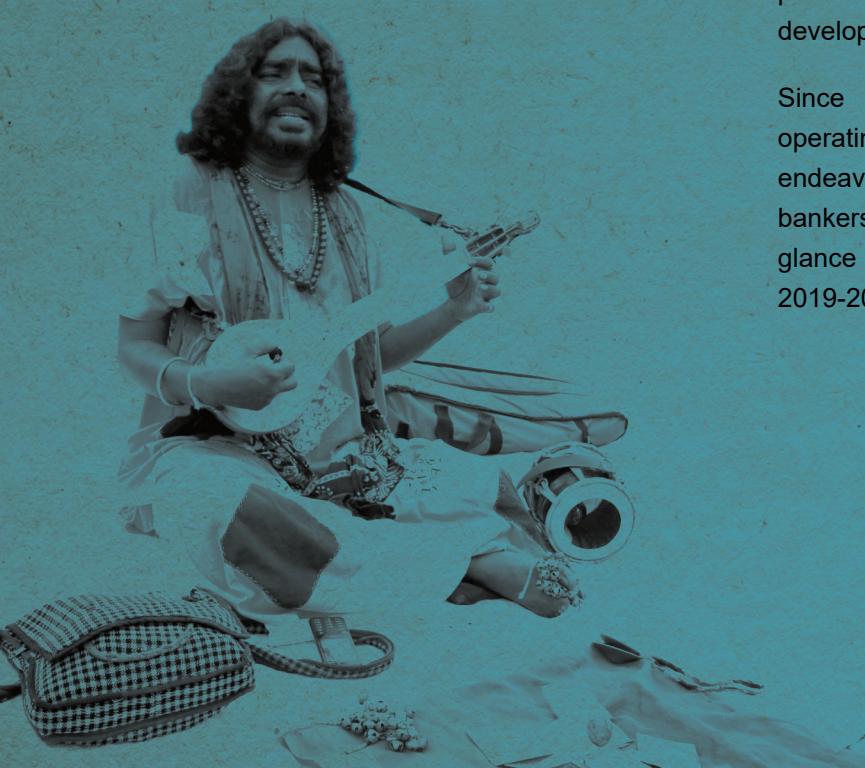

During the year 2019-20, attempts were made to extend the outreach through additions of new programmes as well as to reach out to fresh geographical regions. Programmes like "Stress management for enhancing productivity, Linking FPOs to e-NAM and commodity markets, Financing opportunities in Wadi, Off Farm PO" and Climate change became the flagship programmes. Further, the Institute extended its outreach to FPOs, CSR institutions, KVks amongst others.

During 2019-20, the Institute organized NABARD's Foundation Day with a Seminar on Conservation of Water Resources and brought out the publication on Sustainable livelihoods Policies and Institutions (SLPI, 2019), a collection of papers on various livelihood models by the Faculty members.

Select glimpses of programmes from 2019-20 has been collated into an e-book titled as 'Spectrum'. I hope 'Spectrum' will bring to you nuances of the capacity building initiatives undertaken by this Institute.

Joint Director

India, a land as vivid as its culture has been a place of diverse agricultural practices since ages due to its blessed agro climatic terrain. With the changing outlook, there was a sine qua non for better trainings and research relating to agriculture banking and thus, Bankers Institute of Rural development (BIRD), an autonomous institution was promoted by NABARD for undertaking training, research and consultancy in the area of agriculture and rural development banking. Keeping up with this vision, two dedicated campuses have been set up which included Bolpur and Mangalore campuses.

Established in 1984, at Bolpur Shantineketan, the Institute is engaged in training and capacity building of the officials of the Rural Financial Institutions viz., Commercial Banks (CBs), Regional Rural Banks (RRBs), Cooperative Banks, Government and Non-Government organizations particularly in Eastern and North Eastern Region. It organized in-house and on-location training programmes, besides customized programmes for banks, workshops/seminars and studies of current interest, etc. with a team of committed Faculty Members who have specialized in economics, finance, project appraisal, behavioral science, banking law and practice, management and organization development and bank supervision.

Since March 2020, the Institute started operating from Kolkata and continued its endeavor in training and capacity building of bankers and other stakeholders. Let us have a glance at the programmes conducted during 2019-20.

न चोराहार्यम् न च राजहार्यमां,
न भ्रातृभाज्ये न च भारकारि।
व्यये कृते वर्धते एव नित्यं,
विद्याधनं सर्वधनप्रधानम्॥

जिसे न चोर चुरा सकते हैं, न राजा हरण कर सकता है, न भाई बँटा सकते हैं,
जो न भार रूप ही है, जो नित्य खर्च करने पर भी बढ़ता है, ऐसा विद्या धन सभी धनों में प्रधान है।

It cannot be stolen by thieves, nor can it be taken away by the kings.
It cannot be divided among brothers, it does not have a weight.
If spent regularly, it always keeps growing. The wealth of knowledge is the most superior wealth of all!
